THE TWO PLATFORMS.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the glorious national victory of 1868, which has brought peace, happiness and prosperity to us as a nation.

Resolved, That we wholly approve of the principles and policy of the Administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment proposed by Congress to the Constitution of the United States, and known as the fifteenth amendment.

Resolved, That we have confidence that the General Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and dignity of the nation in respect to our just claims against Great Britain, and that we endorse the action of the Senate in rejecting the Johnson-Clarendon treaty, known as the Alabama claims.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the struggling peoples of all nations in their efforts to attain universal freedom and the invaluable rights of man.

Resolved, That we confidently endorse the Administration of General John W. Geary as wise, economical and honest, and that it deserves, as it has received, the approval of the people of Pennsylvania, and we especially commend his uniform efforts to restrain the evils of special legislation.

Resolved, That in Hon. Henry W. Williams, our candidate for the Supreme Court, we present a learned, pure, and patriotic jurist, who will adorn the high position to which we purpose to elect him.

Resolved, That we reiterate and affirm our adherence to the doctrine of protection, as proclaimed in the ninth resolution of the platform adopted at the State Convention of March 7, 1866.

Resolved, That we endorse the ticket this day nominated, and pledge to it our hearty and cordial support.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this convention is hereby authorized to appoint a chairman of the State Central Committee on the joint recommendation of the candidates this day nominated, and that the State Central Committee shall consist during the coming campaign of the same number of delegates from each county as the last committee, and they shall be appointed by the Senatorial and Representative districts, except Allegheny, which shall have eight members.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

First. That the Federal Government is limited to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the Government and to the safety of the people; and the Democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

Second. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the Radical members of the last legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty, and an outrage upon every citizen of the State; and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed, and the amendment submitted to the people, at the polls, for acceptance or rejection.

Third: That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

Fourth. That reform in the administration of the Federal and State governments in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

Fifth. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the laboring man have our most cordial co-operation.

Sixth. That the legislation of the late Republican Congress outside of the Constitution; the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and the sanctity of the ballot-box, in the exclusion from their seats of Representatives clearly elected; the establishment of military government in States in the Union, and the overthrow of all civil government therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government, and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

Seventh. That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all guarantees given in their favor most faithfully carried into execution.

Eighth. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example of encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights.

Ninth. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the General Government is grossly unjust, and means ought to be at once adopted to cause a modification thereof.

THE FAMILY MEETING.

We are all here!
Father, mother,
Sister, brother,
All who hold each other dear,
Each chair is filled—we're all at home!
To-night let no cold stranger come.
It is not often thus around
Our old familiar hearth we're found;
Bless, then, the meeting and the spot,
For once be every care forgot!
Let gentle Peace assert her power,
And kind affection rule the hour;
We're all, all here.

We're not all here!
Some are away—the dead ones dear,
Who thronged with us this ancient hearth,
And gave the hour to guiltless mirth.
Fate, with a stern relentless hand,
Look'd in and thinned our little band;
Some, like a night-flash, passed away,
And some sank lingering day by day.
The quiet graveyard—some lie there—
And cruel Ocean has his share;
We're not all here

We are all here!
Even they, the dead—though dead, so dear,
Fond memory to her duty true,
Brings back their faded forms to view.
How life-like, through the mist of years,
Each well-remembered face appears!
We see them as in times long past.
From each to each kind looks are cast;
We hear their words, their smiles behold,
They're round us as they were of old—
We are all here.

We are all here!
Father, mother,
Sister, brother,
You that I love with love so dear.
This may not long of us be said;
Soon must we join the gather'd dead,
And by the hearth we now sit round,
Some other circle will be found.
Oh! then that wisdom may we know,
Which yields a life of peace below;
So in the world to follow this,
May each repeat, in words of bliss,
"We're all, all here!"

Children:

BY MRS. H. B. STOWE.

"A little child shall lead them."

One cold market morning I looked into a milliner's shop, and there I saw a hale, hearty, well-browned young fellow from the country, with his long cart-whip, and a lion-shag coat, holding up some little matter, and turning it about on his great fist. "And what do you suppose it was? A baby's bonnet! A little, soft, blue satin hood, with a swan's down border, white as snow, with a frill of rich blonde around the edge.

By his side stood a pretty woman, holding, with no small pride, the baby—for evidently it was the baby. Any one could read that face in every glance, as they looked at each other and then at the large unconscious eyes and fat, dimpled cheeks of the little one. It was evident that neither of them had ever seen a baby like that before.

"But really, Mary," said the young man, "don't you think three dollars is too high?"

Mary very prudently said nothing, but taking the bonnet, tied it on the little head and held up the baby. The man looked, and without another word down went the money—all the avails of the last week's butter; and as they went out of the shop, it was hard to say which looked the most delighted with the bargain.

Another day, as I was passing a carriage factory on one of the back streets I saw a young mechanic at work on a wheel. The rough body of a carriage stood beside him and there, all hooded and cloaked, sat a little dark-eyed girl about a year old, playing with a great shaggy dog. As I stopped, the man looked up from his work, and turned admiringly toward his little companion, as much as to say,

"See what I have got."

"Yes," thought I, and if that little lady ever gets a glance from admiring swains as sincere as that, she will be lucky."

Ah, these children, little witches, pretty even in all their faults and absurdities. See for example, yonder little fellow in a naughty fit. He has shaken his long curls over his deep blue eyes; the fair brow is bent in a frown; the rose-leaf lips are pursed up in infinite defiance, and the white shoulder thrust forward. Can any but a baby look so pretty even in his naughtiness?

Then comes the instant change; flashing smiles and tears, as the good comes back all in a rush, and you are overwhelmed with protestations and kisses.

They are irresistible, too, these little ones. They pull away the scholar's pen, tumble about his papers, turn somersaults over his books; and what can he not do? They tear up papers, litter the carpet, pull and upset, and then jabber unheard of English in self-defense, and what can you do for yourself?

"If I had a child," says the precise man, "you should see."

He does have a child, and his child tears up his papers, tumbles over his things, and pulls his nose, like all other children; and what has the precise man to say for himself? Nothing; he is like everybody else; "a little child shall lead him."

The hardened heart of the worldly man is not untouched by the guileless tones and simple caresses of his son; but he repays it in time by imparting to his boy all the crooked tricks and callous maxims which have undone himself.

Go to the jail, the penitentiary, and find there the wretch most sullen, brutal and hardened. Then look at your infant son. Such as he is to you, such to some mother was this man. That hard hand was soft and delicate; that rough voice was tender and lisping; fond eyes followed him as he played, and he was rocked and cradled as something holy. There was a time when his heart, soft and unworn, might have opened to questionings of God, but has been sealed over with the seal of Heaven. Harsh hands seized it; fierce goblin lineaments were impressed upon it; and all is over with him forever!

So, of the tender, weeping child, is made the callous, heartless man; of the all believing child, the sneering skeptic; of the beautiful, and modest, the shameless and abandoned; and this is what the world does for the little children.

There was a time when the Divine one stood on the earth and little children sought to draw near to him.—But harsh human beings stood between him and them forbidding their approach. Ah it has not always been so? Do not even we, with our hard unsubdued feelings, our worldly and unspiritual habits and maxims, stand like a dark screen between our little child and its Savior and keep even from the choice bud of our hearts the sweet radiance which might unfold it for Paradise? "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not," is still the voice of the Son of God; but the cold world still closes around and forbids. When of old, the disciples would question their Lord of the higher mysteries of his kingdom, he took a child and set him in the midst, as a sign of him who should be the greatest in Heaven.—The gentle teacher remains to us. By every hearth and fireside Jesus still sets the little child in the midst of us.

Wouldst thou know, O parent! what is the faith which unlocks Heaven? Go not to wrangling polemics, or creeds and forms of theology, but draw to thy bosom thy little one, and read in that clear eye the lesson of eternal life. Be only to thy God as thy child is to thee, and all is done.—Blessed shalt thou be indeed when a little child shall lead thee.

Let us be more Sociable.

In order to increase the sum of human happiness, we should cultivate kind and fraternal feelings one with another. A true life consists in something else than simply accumulating property. We do not and cannot "live by bread alone." A writer in the Journal of Agriculture discourses on this subject, most beautifully as follows:

The sole object and aim of too many individuals seems to get gain, "grab all," let the consequences be what they may, to others. The desire to accumulate wealth, regardless of the comfort and social happiness of our neighbors and the interchange of friendly sentiments, should be ignored. On the other hand, we should so live and act that the generous impulses of our own hearts would prompt us to extend the hand of fellowship to all our neighbors and looking them squarely in the eye, feel that glorious inward consciousness that we had never wronged them in thought, word or deed. Then, too, let words of kindness be spoken; let little deeds of love be done; let the principles of the golden rule be exemplified in our daily lives; let us be more sociable, and cultivate our convivial qualities by frequent interchanges of friendly greetings at social gatherings; let no aristocracy be acknowledged, save that of intellect; let us beautify our homes; let us make them what they should be by cherishing a love for the beautiful, so that

Blessings may attend us forever,
"And whatever we pray for or do;
May our lives be one grand endeavor
To type the pure, the good, and the true!"

To PARENTS.—Parents who are careless in regard to their diet, pay but little attention to that of their children, and perhaps as many of the latter die from parental neglect as from all other causes combined. We do not mean neglect while in sickness, but that neglect which brings sickness upon them. Improper diet, neglect of the bath, exposure to extremes of heat and cold, and insufficient ventilation of sleeping apartments, bring disease and death to many families. There is a good deal of ignorance on these subjects among the masses, but thousands of parents have more knowledge in regard to them than they are willing to give practical effect to. Their time is too much occupied in business or pleasure, and their children are either left to take care of themselves, or what is equally as bad, committed to the hands of indifferent servants. When sickness comes they are too ready to attribute it to any cause than their own neglect of the plainest laws of our nature. Dietetic regulations should be enforced habitually, in winter as in summer; and not spasmodically, as when epidemic or contagious diseases threaten the community. If hygienic rules are observed for a long period of time, the constitution becomes strengthened against disease, and no alarm need be felt in times of panic. On the other hand, those who pay no attention to diet until threatened with the cholera, or some other fearful malady, will derive little benefit from changing their food, or pouring down medicines in the form of preventatives. Taking care of the body is an every day work, and one which cannot be neglected with impunity, as the violation of nature's laws is sure to be punished in proportion to the degree of the offense.

All can judge for themselves, in proportion to the knowledge which they have, how far they are neglecting their own health, and the health of their children. If they think they have discharged the full measure of their duties, very good. If not, they should begin to consider their shortcomings, and amend whatever has been amiss. Our responsibilities in this regard are much greater than we are willing to admit or able to realize, and the subject is one upon which too little thought has been bestowed.

Happy Homes.

It is the wholesome ambition of every young man that is worth anything, to be some day the joint proprietor of a happy home. If his hopes in this respect are not duly realized, the fault will be almost invariably his own. It is a shame to put, as we too often do, the blame of the domestic infelicity we see upon the weaker side of the house. We are tired of this endless clack and clamor against the girl of the period gone to seed. Said girl is doubtless bad enough in any stage of her existence, but she, at least, is not responsible, in one case out of ten, for the unhappiness of home. Hardly the worst or the weakest woman is. Home is her realm, her home, her all. She will not voluntarily abdicate her royal prerogative. The woman who knows nothing else, knows enough to make, to the extent of her unaided feebleness, her table and fireside attractive to her husband and her children. Even the most unmitigated periodical girl has generally both the disposition and capacity to become an affectionate, unselfish, cheerful, and tolerably successful wife and mother.

Let the man contribute as much and his home will be happy enough. Where you see unhappiness in a home look to the husband. Men are naturally, or we would say, unnaturally, more or less brutes, in the domestic circle. And we don't mean essentially brutish men, either. We are not including that indispensible class of the community who keep local newspapers a going by making their wives' and children's heads the raw material for police items—nor sots, nor churls, nor peculiarly bloodthirsty fiends.—We mean that unfortunately vastly larger class of eminently respectable brutes who are so exemplary in their business, in society, in church and the prayer meeting, who, in their homes, are only imperious, stern, stingy, unreasonable, pettish, freakish. They may possess any single one of these traits, or any combination of them, but they are brutes all the same.—Theirs are not happy homes. Their children brighten, oh! how sadly, as they leave home in the morning, and scud for bed, before they come home at night. Their wives, who give them their lives and thoughts and bodies, are afraid to give them the butcher's bill. The family Bible is stained with tears from young eyes that cannot learn to read by reason of them. The holiest place on earth, the hearth, is desecrated by the unspoken and undefined curses of young hearts embittered by a sense of injustice witnessed and suffered. Such husbands are loved often by those they make miserable, who, poor things, must love something; yet their homes are not happy. The stroke that fells the head of such a house would be mourned a calamity, but it would be felt a relief. There are tragedies at many breakfast tables this morning which are not read from papers. Tragedies enacted by monsters who are good citizens, and in the main good men—the tragedies of bullied children and scolded wife. God forgive the man, be he otherwise sinner or saint, who has allowed a trivial foible in his character to wreck the happiness of a home! No wonder that the sons of so many good men and reputable families grow up sceptic and scapegrace. No wonder that well-born daughters acquire an unholy taste for fashionable dissipation, and a horror of home. No wonder that wives wilt and perish without visible maladies. No wonder that our streets are filled at night with homeless women and precious boys—that our prisons teem with human wrecks. They all come from the happy homes that ought to be, but are not.

Young man of high hopes and an unsealed future! Would you make yours a happy home? You need not be advised to be industrious, affectionate, and faithful. You will be that anyway. As you value the attainment of your ambition, the realization of your hope, the success of your life; your own happiness, and the happiness of your home, learn to keep your temper!

THE STORY OF A PHYSICIAN.—An eminent physician, in Hearth and Home, tells the following excellent story for the benefit of young mothers. He says: "An intelligent young mother inquired some days since how she could best preserve her child's linen clean and sweet when changed frequently during the day. I directed her never to dry it by the fire, but in the sun and open air if the weather permitted. You thus not only avoid saturating the air of your room with the volatile and poisonous gases driven out of the linen, but the sun's rays have powers of cleansing and disinfecting, which artificial heat has not, and will purify and preserve the linen.—She followed my directions, but as is too often the practice, dried and aired it in the nursery window. Her fastidious husband remonstrated in vain at this unseemly exposure. Believing that if she saw her practice as others saw it, she would desist, he so directed their afternoon walk as to bring the nursery window in full view from a central part of the town. Stopping abruptly he pointed to the offending linen flapping conspicuously in the breeze, and asked sarcastically: "My dear, what is that displayed from our window?" "Why," she promptly replied, "that is the flag of our Union!" Conquered by this pungent retort, he saluted the flag with a swing of his hat, and pressing his wife's arm closer within his own, said, as they walked homeward, "And long may it wave."

"He Died for Me."

Many interesting narratives and experiences are told at Henry Ward Beecher's Friday evening prayer meetings. Last week one of the prominent citizens of Brooklyn, doing business on Wall street, related the following. We reproduce the story as it fell from his lips: "Not long since I found myself at Cincinnati with a little spare time, and I thought I would improve it in visiting some of the Southern battlefields and burial places. I first proceeded to Nashville. On going out to the soldier's cemetery, I observed a man planting a flower over a grave. I approached him and asked him if his son was buried there. 'No,' was the response. 'A son-in-law?' 'No.' 'A brother?' 'No.' 'A relative?' 'No.' 'Whose memory then do you cherish?' I ventured to ask. After delaying a moment and putting down a small bond which he held in his hand he replied: 'Well, I will tell you. When the war broke out I lived in Illinois. I wanted to enlist, but I was poor, and had a large family of children depending upon me for their daily bread. Finally, as the war continued I was drafted.—No draft money was given me; I was unable to procure a substitute, and made up my mind to go. After I had got everything in readiness, and was just leaving to report for duty at the conscript camp, a young man whom I had known came to me and said: 'You have a big family whom your wife cannot support while you are gone; I will go for you.' In the battle of Chicamauga, the poor fellow was dangerously wounded. Owing to Bragg's offensive demonstration on Chatanooga, he, along with others, was taken to the hospital at Nashville. After a lingering illness he died and was buried there. Ever since hearing of his death I have been desirous of coming to Nashville and seeing that his remains were properly buried.—Having saved sufficient funds, I came on yesterday, and have to day found the poor fellow's grave.' On completing his story, the man took up the small board and inserted it at the foot of the grave. Turning to look at it I saw this simple inscription, and nothing more: "He died for me."

MARRIAGE FEE.—In Virginia, where the law fixes the marriage fee at $1, there is a reminiscence of a couple who many years ago called on a parson and requested him to marry them.

"Where is my fee?" said the functionary.

The parties who were to unite their fortunes did so at once and found the joint amount to be twenty-seven cents.

"I can't marry you for that sum," said the irate old gentleman.

"A little bit of service will go a long way," suggested the male applicant.

"Ah, no," said the parson, "you don't pay for the size of the pill, but for the good you hope it will do you."

The lass, intent on marriage, began to weep, but the parson was inexorable, and the couple turned sadly to depart. Just then a happy thought seemed to strike the forlorn maiden, and she turned and cried through her tears: "Please, sir, if you can't marry us full up, won't you marry us twenty-seven cents' worth; we can come for the rest some other time."

This was too much for the parson.—He married them "full up," and they went on their way rejoicing.

A Chinese immigration agent has been in South Carolina for some weeks past, and has made contracts with a number of planters to furnish them with Chinese laborers by the first of the new year. One rice planter has contracted for two hundred and fifty Chinamen.

☞ The Lehigh Register says "it is the height of folly for enthusiastic Democrats to attempt to make folks believe Asa Packer made this great Lehigh Valley. They may be believed by very innocent people, people who can't read, people who have no ideas of what the Almighty has done; but among educated men the opinion exists that God did all that they claim Asa Packer has done." It was the Creator who put the Lehigh river in its present channel; He erected these mountains and hills, and it was through His will the coal formed around Mauch Chunk, and the iron and limestone are embedded under the soil in pursuance of His great rules. Geology teaches us that the minerals were here long before Asa Packer was born. The truth is The Valley made Asa Packer. We give him due credit for the energy he displayed in pushing through the Lehigh Valley Railroad, but does any one suppose that if he had not been at the head of it no one else would? It might have been completed later, and it might have been completed sooner. No one can tell. He merely followed the dictation of shrewdness, and being in a position to know, was confident when others were doubtful of its success. But do not, for the honor of our State, make this the sole reason for voting for a man for Governor of our great Pennsylvania, who can't even write his own messages. He has had his own reward, and ample it is. He has worshipped at the shrine of the Golden Calf all his days; let him stick to it and enjoy its blessings."

A MEETING

Of the Republican County Committee appointed in accordance with the resolution of the late Republican Co. Convention, will be held at the Court House in Huntingdon, on WEDNESDAY, Sept. 15, 1869, at 1 o'clock, P. M. The following list of Committee men has been furnished by the delegates to the late Convention from the districts named—delegates to the late Convention from all other districts are requested to furnish their Committee men with the proper credentials, it not being known who they have appointed.

Tod—G. W. McClain, Isaac Curfman.

A number of the Committee men who have been ruled out by Mr. Logan and his associate disorganizers, have requested us to make the above call, and we hope there will be a full attendance of men loyal to the Republican party, and the whole County, District and State ticket. Now is the time to save the great Republican party from defeat in the good old Republican County of Huntingdon.

We know, and every Republican in the county knows, that the ticket at our masthead was regularly nominated by a Republican County Convention, and we intend to support and defend it as the ticket of the party against any and all guerrillaism and disorganizing influences that may be brought against it. We have been educated to our present convictions of party justice, in part, by some of the men who are now disorganizers—by men who have been honored by the party organization they now seek to destroy. We hope we may never fall to their political level.

THE nominees on the Republican ticket not "accepted" or "ratified" by the "ring" Committee—Fouse, Williamson, Lambertson and Richardson—have always been active and true Republican men, and they are worthy and fully competent to discharge the duties of the offices to which they have been nominated. But—they are friends of Wm. H. Woods, and for this, and no other important reason, the "ring" will try to defeat them.

The One Man Power.

Andrew Johnson attempted to control the Republican party by the exercise of the one man power. He went too far, and fell. Mr. Logan, only an agent to carry out, as far as it is possible for him to do so, the commands of the "ring," will, as soon as he gets through with his dirty work, also fall beneath the contempt of all honorable party men.

THE MEN who are acting with the "ring" are working to defeat the entire Republican ticket of the county and district. Perhaps Geary may be defeated by a few hundred lost to him by the disorganization of the party in this county. Who will be to blame, the disorganizers or the men who stand by the action of the County Convention?

The "Ring."

The Republican party of the county must understand that a "ring" exists in the county—and has existed for years. This "ring" must fight somebody every fall to keep in working order. It has for several years been fighting Wm. H. Woods and everybody in the party not willing to join in with the members of it in denouncing Mr. Woods. They have been persecuting Mr. Woods and all who would not bend the knee to them until Woods and his friends are somebody in a party contest, and now that the "ring" has lost the power to rule, it will try to ruin. We know Mr. Woods to be a truer man to the Republican party and its nominees than any leader of the "ring" can with truth claim to be, and we will not agree to stand idly by and witness the attempt to use the party organization to fight a worthy and prominent member of the party. We too, of course, have come in for a good share of abuse from the "ring" because we act independent of it. We lived while we were outside of the party organization, and we can live the better now that we are fighting for the party within its organization; and having had considerable experience "outside" we intend to profit by it and amuse ourself fighting those who were in then but are now out. The "ring" shall receive our attention, as much in self-defense as with a purpose to defend unjustly persecuted members of the party.

Defend and Vote the Whole Ticket.

We earnestly urge every Republican in the county to support the whole ticket nominated by the Republican Co. Convention, Swoope, Lytle, Smucker, Fouse, Williamson, Lambertson, Richardson and Green, are all true party men, are worthy your support, and will make good officers. Whatever of personal fights members of the party may have with each other should not be allowed to distract the party. It may be important to some gentlemen to secure control of the party to fight their personal fights, but if the party yields to such a demand the party must be defeated, and the Democrats will rejoice in a victory over every candidate on our ticket. Remember, one, two, three or four candidates cannot be selected and stricken down without endangering the success of all. The proscribed candidates have friends who will most likely retaliate if leaders of the party attempt to justify the repudiation of any part of a regularly nominated ticket. There is only one way to save your party from defeat, and that way is to give a united vote for the whole ticket. Those who work to the contrary may expect in the future to receive the recognition they well deserve. We will see whether the party will agree to forget its interests to gratify the personal enemies of Wm. H. Woods and his friends. Such fights should end with the adjournment of every County nominating Convention.

Stick a Pin There.

We copy from the "full report of the proceedings" of the late Republican County Convention, as reported by Robt. McDivitt and published in the Journal & American, the following:

On motion, THE DELEGATES TO THIS CONVENTION WERE AUTHORIZED TO NAME THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE.

With this action of the Republican County Convention staring Mr. Logan in the face, he, obeying the instructions of the "ring," proceeded to reject the men named to him by delegates, for no other reason than that they could not be influenced to do anything to disorganize the party or to defeat the ticket put in nomination by the Convention. And on the day when Mr. Logan's Committee met, he insultingly denied life-long Republicans who claimed seats with the Committee, the right to be heard. Perhaps, yes, it may be a certainty, that Mr. Logan is to receive another fat office outside of the Republican organization for aiding in the "ring's" rule or ruin fight.

WE SELDOM, if ever, fail to defend the men who are unjustly persecuted. In years past, we defended Mr. Scott and Mr. Dorris when they were denounced by the very men they are now working in harmony with to disorganize the Republican party. As men and good citizens we respect them—as party men now—as disorganizers—we—well, they cannot expect to have the respect of men who desire the success of the Republican party in the County. It is unpleasant for us to politically fight many men, but as an honest party man we cannot do less than oppose all opposition to the success of our party ticket and our party organization.

WE understand that Brice X. Blair, Post Master at this place, appointed by Gen. Grant, is acting with the "ring" to defeat the Republican county ticket. Good-bye Gen. Grant and Gov. Geary if the men who hold office under you are to be permitted to use their influence to defeat your party organization and its nominees.

WE double the stakes and go one better. Who is "Vigilance?" We are anxious to know the man whose "prominence and influence are felt" who would dare to strike at—well, no matter—who is "Vigilance"?

Meeting of Logan's Packed County Committee.

We shall endeavor to give a correct report of the proceedings of Mr. Logan's packed Committee which met in Huntingdon on Friday last. At 2 o'clock Mr. Logan gave public notice in front of the Court House that the Committee would meet in the Grand Jury room, and immediately a rush was made for the room, Mr. Logan acting as door-keeper, and trying to prevent any from entering the room but those he had appointed on the Committee, but a large number of other committee men, who had been appointed by delegates of the late County Convention, in accordance with a motion adopted by the Convention that the delegates should name the County Committee, also presented themselves and pressed their way into the room, as also did other Republicans who were anxious to witness the work of the "ring" of disorganizers. Mr. Logan called his committee to order, and gave notice that he would call over the list of his committee, and all whose names were not called should leave the room. After the list had been called we presented a paper from James Port appointing us his substitute to act as a member of the committee, at the same time offering a resolution which the Chairman would not allow us to read, when David Blair moved that no substitutes be permitted to act with the Committee, which Mr. Logan declared carried, and we were through and retired. Legally appointed members of the committee, appointed by delegates of the late convention, also made an effort to be heard, but Chairman Logan applied the gag and they too were requested to retire, which they did.—Before we had retired Mr. Blair moved that the Committee adjourn to the Court Room to hear John Scott read and explain a Constitution said to be the Constitution of a secret political organization in existence in the county. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Scott. The committee then adjourned to the Court Room where Mr. Scott soon made his appearance, and the Constitution was read and Mr. Scott's remarks condemning the organization were heard by the Committee and a large number of outsiders. The chairman then requested that the committee again return to the Grand Jury room, when on motion of a member of the committee, reporters for the press only were to be admitted. The committee and reporters again assembled in the jury room, when on motion public meetings were ordered to be held during the campaign, at Shirleysburg, Mt. Union, Alexandria, Manor Hill, Orbisonia, Mapleton, Cassville, Coalmont, Petersburg and Shade Gap.

David Blair then moved that the party do all in its power to elect Geary and Williams, which motion, after a speech from Mr. Blair, was put and carried unanimously. Joseph Johnson, of Petersburg, then moved that the party unite in favor of the election of John N. Swoope, the Republican candidate for the Legislature. David Blair, of Huntingdon, H. G. Robison, of Dublin, David Hare, of Porter, and others, objected. Mr. Blair took the the floor in opposition to the motion and objected to Mr. Swoope's nomination because he had been nominated with the aid of Wm. Woods and his friends. He moved to amend the motion by substituting the name of Rev. Guyer of Warriorsmark. David Hare denounced the nomination of Mr. Swoope. Several of the committee expressed themselves willing to assist in defeating the ticket. Mr. Stone braker was opposed to nominating a new ticket. D. Blair said it was probable that Mr. Swoope would decline if Mr. Guyer should be nominated.—Mr. Phillips, of Alexandria, said Mr. Swoope did not intend to decline.—John G. Stewart, of Mt. Union, said the committee had no right to make nominations. Mr. Dean, of Cassville, opposed the nomination of a new ticket. Mr. Briggs, of Tell, said he would not support the ticket nominated by the Republican County Convention.—Mr. Blair took the ground that the ticket must be defeated to defeat the majority that put it in nomination. Mr. Briggs moved that the committee proceed to nominate a new ticket—yeas, 16, nays, 20. Yeas—Blair, Orbison, of Orbisonia; Briggs, Robison, Hare, and others whose names we cannot remember. The chairman, Mr. Logan, said it did not necessarily follow that "we" must support the ticket nominated by the Republican County Convention because "we" refuse to nominate a new one. Mr. Hare said, "we" will kill the ticket and elect Democrats. Mr. Briggs moved that Mr. Lytle be accepted as "our" nominee. Capt. Johnson suggested that the committee adjourn. Mr. Blair reminded the chair that Mr. Briggs' motion was still before the committee. Mr. Spangle, of Shirley, moved that "we" ratify Mr. Lytle's nomination, Mr. Isaac Swoope, of Mt. Union district, moved the ratification of the whole county ticket. Mr. Blair moved to include in Mr. Spangle's motion, J. E. Smucker and Barton Green—carried. Capt. Johnson moved that "we" heartily endorse the nomination of John N. Swoope—carried, with several objections. Mr. Stonebraker, of Mill Creek, said he would not support all the candidates put in nomination. Some member moved that "we" only indorse that part of the ticket "we" have accepted. Mr. Blair suggested that "we" vote as "we" please, and defeat all suspected of belonging to the secret order.

A committee of three was then appointed to consider the Crawford County System, or the reduction of the number of delegates to a county convention, as suggested by Mr. Blair, and to report at the next meeting of the committee. Mr. Estep, of Coalmont, moved that the chair call a new County Convention. Ruled out of order. Mr. Blair moved that the full proceedings be published. Agreed to. On motion adjourned.

The foregoing is as full a report of what was said and done by the packed committee as it was possible for us to note down in the general confusion that prevailed. Mr. Logan appeared to understand the "ring" rules well; they were that the gag should be applied to every true party man in favor of adhering to party nominations, and who appeared there and claimed a seat by appointment, as had been directed by the convention that elected Mr. Logan chairman. A half blind man could easily see in Mr. Logan's conduct towards old and well-tried Republicans that he was only carrying out the instructions of the enemies of William Woods, and that he was the willing tool of the "ring" or "literati" that has for several years attempted to defeat one or more of the party nominees. That "ring" defeated McVitty two years ago. That "ring" made an extra effort to defeat Capt. Neely last fall, and but for Mr. Woods and his friends, and other true party men all over the county, Capt. Neely would have been defeated. Logan is only carrying out what the "ring" directs. It directed him to pack the committee sufficiently strong with anti-Woods men that Mr. Woods' most bitter enemies could use it to help them to injure him as a party man and a citizen, and to defeat any of his friends put in nomination on the county ticket. Mr. Logan, thus far, has obeyed the instructions of the secret political "ring," and has succeeded, thus far, in working his committee in the interest of the party opposed to Gen. Grant, Gen. Geary, and the success of the Union Republican party.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we tried to get a seat with Logan's committee for the purpose only of hearing what might be said and done by the traitors to their party organization on that committee, and to make an effort to secure seats for men who had a right to be there but had been rejected by order of the "ring." We did not then, nor do we now recognize that committee as the committee authorized by the County Convention. It was packed by disorganizers for disorganizing purposes, and cannot honestly claim to have the right to speak for the Republican party of the county. We reject it—and the party of the county must, if the success of the party is desired by its friends.

Who are the Disorganizers?

The gentlemen who are active in their opposition to the election of the entire Republican county ticket as nominated by the late Republican County Convention, certainly will have no objections to their names going before the public in the columns of the Globe, that whatever influence they may have in disorganizing the party may be felt as soon as possible. We give the names we can just now remember; as follows:

Theo. H. Cremer, a candidate for nomination at the late Convention, but was defeated by the wounded soldier F. S. Fouse; David Blair, Brice X. Blair, Post Master; Hon. John Scott, U. S. Senator; Wm. Dorris, H. G. Fisher, who couldn't be elected a delegate; M. M. Logan, County Treasurer; Dr. H. Orlady, Master of the "ring," and others we will give hereafter that the party may have a record of the men who are willing to see the party defeated and destroyed for years to come.

Lytle, Smucker, and Green.

These gentlemen, regularly nominated by the late Republican County Convention, were accepted by the disorganizers as their candidates, and Mr. Swoope also, conditionally, that he is not a friend of W. H. Woods. What position are these gentlemen placed in by their disorganizing friends? Are they thus publicly set up by the disorganizers to be knocked down by the friends of other gentlemen on the ticket the disorganizers refuse to accept as party candidates? We hope all true Republicans will overlook such reckless proceedings, and not hold the accepted candidates accountable for the foolish proceedings of their would-be friends—we may say their worst enemies.

Some one in Connecticut sends a proposition to the New York Tribune, that the National Debt shall be paid off by voluntary subscription—no one to be allowed to subscribe less than one million dollars. That fellow evidently wants to get out of paying his share of the debt. The Tribune says the entire fortunes of all citizens of the United States, worth $1,000,000 or over, would not suffice to pay the debt, and that we must all help, as we are now doing, and not allow a few to pay it and receive all the credit.

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed his assistant at Washington to continue through September the weekly purchases of Bonds and sales of Gold which have been made throughout August. Any one who pleases has a right to guess that Mr. Boutwell means to keep doing so until directed by Congress to do otherwise. We heartily trust that such is his purpose, The best answer to the demagogue cry that the Debt can never be paid is to persist in steadily paying it.

Is That the Reason Why?

A gentleman at our elbow tells us that every man on the Republican ticket, for once in several years, has been a Republican since the party took that name. Before that they were Whigs. Now, it may be, that the ticket is objectionable to some gentlemen because it is not mixed enough with their kind. We think it is time original Republicans should have some show for the offices.

THE Logan Committee, on motion of David Blair, denied us a seat with the Committee as a substitute, but permitted other substitutes who were willing to play disorganizers to act as Committee men. The disorganizers didn't want to give us an opportunity to blow them up in their own house. We had the powder on hand.

Spain is fearful that our Government will recognize Cuban belligerency.

Who Pays the Piper.

A favorite Democratic argument in favor of Packer's election to the Governorship is the statement that he has exercised great shrewdness and skill in the management of his own affairs, and has amassed an immense fortune. About the truth as to his shrewdness in money matters there can be no doubt, and more evidence is accumulating every day. For instance it is said he paid over $100,000 to the Democratic State Committee, last week, for the purpose of running the campaign, and raised the tonnage upon coal fifty-five cents per ton, on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, of which he is principal owner. No person can doubt the shrewdness of this operation, nor that the man who conceived it is eminently fit for the position of Governor. The additional tonnage, which must be paid by the consumers, who are chiefly poor men and laboring men, will make up that $100,000 and Packer will have the credit of furnishing it. It is not surprising that the man who can manage to make the consumers of coal pay the expense of electing him Governor, should have accumulated a fortune. It is possible that the consumers of coal may object, we don't know, but we call their attention to it that they may reflect on the wonderful financial skill and shrewdness of the Democratic candidate for Governor.

IN THE Logan Committee, on a motion to nominate a new ticket, 16 voted yea, and 20 voted nay—three short of one half the packed Committee of 78 members. Logan hadn't the Committee packed quite as strong as he and his associate disorganizers thought they had.

IT IS alleged by two gentlemen residing in the neighborhood of Petersburg, who were "in," that the "Constitution" read in the Court House by Mr. Scott, is the same as subscribed to by them in presence of a prominent leader of the disorganizers.

AN OLD NEGRO AND HIS CHICKENS.—Dr. Peters, the eminent astronomer connected with Hamilton College, went west to observe the late eclipse of the sun. While there an amusing incident occurred which is told by a gentleman present at the time, who says that the effect upon the animal creation has been exaggerated. Horses or cattle paid little or no attention. Creatures that are accustomed to go to some particular place at dark did start for their places, and undoubtedly in some dismay. Birds were apparently astonished by being suddenly caught out late, and must have fancied that they had absent mindedly neglected to notice sunset. They flew rapidly. An old rooster took to the fence and folded himself up, but in two minutes and fifty-two seconds he crowed lustily. It was a very short night to him.

Saturday morning Dr. Peters requested an old negro living near his observatory to watch carefully his flock of hens, for at 4:45 they would go to roost. After the eclipse was over he came, evidently much excited. "How was it?" said the doctor. "Beats de debbil," said the negro. "When the darkness come ebry chick'n run for de hole in de barn. De fust ones got in, and de next ones run ober one under and the last ones dey just squat right down in de grass. How long you know dis ting was a coming?" "Oh! I reckon we knew it more than a year," said the doctor. "Beats de debbil! Here you away in New York knowd a year ago what my chick'ns was gwine to do dis bery afternoon, an' you nebber see de chick'ns afore nudder!"

☞ Somebody has started the report in Philadelphia that our worthy townsman (whom the Democracy would take away from us and transfer to the insalubrious atmosphere of Harrisburg) raised and equipped a regiment of soldiers during the war—Union soldiers, we suppose, is meant; the report does not say which. But we are able, on the best authority, to brand this story as a base slander, concocted to injure him with that class of voters who were in the habit of denouncing the soldiers for the Union as "Lincoln birolings," &c. Not a person here in Mauch Chunk, his apparent residence, would have the hardihood to charge that Judge Packer ever equipped or recruited a single soldier during the late war. The nearest approach to it was his well-known offer on behalf of the Lehigh Valley Railroad to its employees—who might volunteer to defend its and Judge Packer's property from the rebel raiders.—Mauch Chunk Gazette.

It is pretty much so with the so called Democratic party to-day; for in almost every State the party has a different platform. So that if a Democrat don't like the platform of one State, all he has to do is to cross the border into another. You pays your money and takes your choice.

HURRYGRAPHS.

A Wisconsin paper gives the following regarding the corn crop with cheerful dolefulness: "The corn crop is a pigmy, it is a nonentity, it is a factotum, a humbug, a bankrupt.—Everybody seems to have planted the small yellow kind, and as emblematic of its gonenpess it is wearing the weeds of utter disconsolateness. It no more appears in silks and tassels.—Joseph of old would make a poor stagger buying corn the coming harvest."

Death of Benjamin F. Sloan.

We have received a copy of the Lafayette (Ind.) Daily Journal, from which we take the following sad notice of the death of Benjamin F. Sloan, a former resident of Henderson township, this county. His many friends will mourn this unfortunate end of one so highly esteemed, and the unhappy circumstances connected with it.

Benjamin F. Sloan, a freight brakeman on the Valley Road, and one of the best men in his position in its employ, was killed at Wea Station, yesterday morning, August 30th, by falling under his train while in motion.—Eighteen cars passed over his body, which was completely cut to pieces, and the fragments scattered for a considerable distance along the track. The remains were carefully gathered up in an old blanket and brought to the city. Sloan left here on the 5 o'clock morning freight train going west on the Valley Road, drawn by engine 130, Morley conductor, Facer engineer. It is of course impossible to tell exactly how he met his death; but it is supposed that in reaching down to uncouple the cars to make a "running switch" at that place, as usual, he missed his footing in some manner and was thrown upon the track as above stated.

Sloan was a sober, intelligent and most estimable young man, highly esteemed by his associates. He came from Huntingdon Co., Pa., and has been in the employ of the Valley Road about two years. He appears to have had a presentiment of impending evil. He was somewhat injured a short time since in coupling cars, and on going on the road again after his recovery, remarked to a friend that he "would get killed next time like as not." He also said to another friend that he intended to apply for a position as fireman, because it was less dangerous, and he was afraid he would get killed if he kept on "braking" on a freight train. One of the saddest features of the affair is the fact that he was engaged to be married to the daughter of a well-known citizen of the fourth ward, and the ceremony was to have taken place Sunday week. The funeral will take place from the Ninth Street M. E. Church this afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. I. W. Joyce officiating.

There was a large attendance of the friends of the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad, assembled at Millheim, Centre county, on the 27th ult. Col. Ayres, of Spruce Creek, was chosen President of the meeting Mr. Geo F. Miller reported the interview the committee had with the Penn'a. Railroad company. They had a cordial interview with the officers of said road, and the Penn'a. TEA BRANDS AND THEIR MEANING.—The following will interest housekeepers:—"Hyson" means "before the rain," or "flourishing spring," that is, early in the spring; hence it is often called "Young Hyson." "Hyson skin" is composed of the refuse of other kinds, the native term for which is "tea-skins." Refuse of still coarser descriptions containing many stems, is called "tea bones." "Bohea" is the name of the hills in the region where it is collected. "Pekoe" for "pecca" means "white hairs," the down of tender leaves. "Powchong," "folded plant." "Souchong," "small plant." "Twankay" is the name of a small river in the region where it is bought. "Chogo" is from a term signifying "labor," from the care required in its preparation.

RAW BONE

SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

STANDARD WARRANTED.

We offer to Farmers, the present fall season, BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME as being highly improved.

Baugh's Raw Bone Super Phosphate is, as its name indicates, prepared by dissolving Raw Bones in Oil of Vitriol—that is, bones that have not been deprived of their organic matter—the grease and glue—by burning or boiling. It, therefore, presents to the use of the farmer all the valuable properties of Raw Bones in a highly concentrated form—rendering it at once quick in action and very permanent.

☞ Farmers are recommended to purchase of the dealer located in their neighborhood. In sections where no dealer is yet established, the PHOSPHATE may be procured directly from the undersigned.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Short Rules in Rural Economy.

Paint all tools exposed to the weather, and if with a light colored paint, they will not heat, warp or crack the least in the sun.

Dip well seasoned shingles in a lime wash, and dry them before laying, and they will last much longer and not become covered with moss.

In hitching a horse to a common rail or worm fence, always select the inside corner, which will be more secure by its bracing position, and the halter will not become entangled in the projecting ends of the rails, as when hitched on the outside corner.

Always tie a halter, by making first a single loop and then thrusting the end of the halter through this loop.—This is quickly untied, and will never come untied of itself.

Dip the ends of nails into grease and they will drive easily into any hard wood, where they would otherwise double and break.

In screwing nuts into any part of machinery, in cold weather, be careful not to heat them first with the hands, or they will contract after being screwed on tight, and become movable afterward.

In plowing or teaming on the road in hot weather, always rest the horses on an eminence, and where one minute will be worth two in a warm valley.

In setting out young orchards always register the varieties immediately in a book, where they may be referred to in a few years when the trees commence bearing and the labels are lost and the names are forgotten.

In laying garden for fruits and vegetables, place everything in drills or rows, so that they may be cultivated by a horse, and thus save the expenses of hand labor.

Plant a patch of osier willows on every farm; a rod square will furnish as many bands for binding corn stalks, straws, &c., as an acre of rye straw.

Remove every stone from the track in the highway. A single projection which might have been removed in one minute, has battered and injured a thousand wagons, at a damage equal to a hundred days labor.

When board fences become old, and the boards begin to come off, nail upright facing strips upon them against each post, and the boards will be held to their place and the fence last several years longer.

Always set a post fence over a ditch or near a good drainage, and the post always remains dry, and will last many years longer than those standing in wet subsoil.

The financial record of the Republican party is exceedingly brilliant.—$250,000,000 of the public debt has been paid in three years, while France during the same period has added to its debt $150,000,000, and every European nation but Great Britain has followed in the same direction. During the fiscal year taxes have been abated to the amount of $60,000,000. The appropriations of the coming year show a reduction of $56,000,000 in ordinary expenditures, and $26,000,000 in extraordinary, making in all a reduction of $82,000,000. The amount already paid toward the reduction of the debt has never been equalled (in the same length of time) by any nation in the world. The prospect for the future is flattering. The promises of retrenchment, reform, and honest collection of the revenues are being faithfully performed.

☞Mark Twain issues a salutatory address upon assuming the associate editorship of the Buffalo Express. He says: "I am simply going to do my plain, unpretending duty, when I cannot get out of it. I shall work diligently and honestly and faithfully at all times and upon all occasions, when privation and want shall compel me to do it. I shall not make use of slang or vulgarity upon any occasion or under any circumstances, and shall never use profanity except in discussing house-rents and taxes. Indeed, upon second thought, I will not even use it then, for it is unchristian, inelegant and degrading—though, to speak truly, I do not see how house-rent and taxes are going to be discussed worth a cent without it."

Pollard, in his life of Davis, speaks of Henry A. Wise "as a supreme absurdity of war—a shallow-brained and large-mouthed charlatan—a scarecrow made up of buckskin leggings, flint-lock pistols, and profanity."

UNFAILING EYE PRESERVERS!

Lazarus & Morris'

CELEBRATED

PERFECTED SPECTACLES AND EYE GLASSES.

The large and increasing sales of these

SUPERIOR GLASSES

Is a sure proof of their usefulness. We were satisfied that they would be appreciated here as elsewhere, and that the reality of the advantages offered to wearers of our beautiful lenses, viz.: the ease and comfort, the assured and readily ascertained improvement of the sight, and the brilliant assistance they give in all cases, were in themselves so apparent on trial, that the result could not be otherwise than it has, in the almost general adoption of our CELEBRATED PERFECTED SPECTACLES by the residents of this locality.

With a full knowledge of the value of the assertion, we claim that they are the most perfect optical aids ever manufactured. To those needing Spectacles, we afford at all times an opportunity of procuring the best and most desirable.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers; they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the glossy and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people, for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.
